Plaintiff also asserts supplemental state law claims.

2. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988, and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

3. Jurisdiction is found upon 28 U.S.C. §§1331, 1343 and 1367.

VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 ~~U.S.C.~~ §

1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff KORON TARANTOLA is a thirty-seven year old Hispanic American man who resides in the State of New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants LYNETTE REYES and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On January 23, 2011, at approximately 12:15 a.m., in the vicinity of De Sales Place and Bushwick Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, plaintiff was lawfully seated in a vehicle when the defendant officers approached the vehicle, and immediately ordered plaintiff to exit said vehicle.

13. Plaintiff complied with the defendants' order.

14. Upon exiting the vehicle, the defendant officers handcuffed plaintiff and searched him by emptying his pockets, and, in public view, by unbuttoning his pants and looking inside his underwear. The defendant officers also searched inside the vehicle.

15. Notwithstanding the fact that the officers did not recover any contraband from plaintiff or the vehicle, and that plaintiff had committed no crimes, the defendant officers imprisoned plaintiff in a police vehicle and transported him to a police precinct stationhouse.

16. While imprisoned at the stationhouse, the defendant officers subjected plaintiff to a humiliating and unlawful strip search, wherein the defendants compelled plaintiff to pull his pants and underwear down to his ankles, and to bend over, squat, and cough.

17. The defendant officers imprisoned plaintiff until January 24, 2011, at approximately 6:00 a.m., when the defendants released plaintiff without charging him with violating any laws.

18. Defendant JOHN or JANE DOE 1 supervised defendants REYES and JOHN and JANE DOE 2 through 10 and approved of, oversaw, and otherwise participated in arrest and improper searches of the plaintiff.

19. Defendants REYES and JOHN and JANE DOE 2 through 10 directly participated in and/or failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

20. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising its employees, and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality.

21. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers, including the defendants, abuse their authority, are insufficiently trained regarding what constitutes probable cause to arrest individuals, the proper manner to search individuals, and that the defendants otherwise engage in falsification.

22. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such conduct and improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiffs' civil rights.

23. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

24. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff KORON TARANTOLA sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
